These are merely suggestions as to content and should be written or adapted by legal counsel to fit the contributor’s individual situation. If you would like to restrict a gift to a specific program or purpose, we would be happy to assist you or your counsel with this language.

While it is not necessary, it is helpful to make the Challenged Athletes Foundation aware that we are being named in your will or trust. This way you can be sure your generosity will be executed in the manner you intend. In addition, we have a special way to recognize donors who have made a planned gift as well as to inspire others to consider support. However, please know that while any information provided will help the Challenged Athletes Foundation in projecting future support, it is not considered a binding legal obligation in any fashion and that any bequest may be changed without further notice.
